FEDERAL COMMISSION READY; INQUIRY WILL COVER WIDEST FIELD

Board Plans to Hold Hearings in Every Provincial Capital—No Date Set for Opening Session—Briefs to Come From "Recognized Public Organizations," Not Individuals

OTTAWA, Sept. 9 (P).—With plans for public hearings in every provincial capital and in Ottawa to commence as soon as the Provincial Government submissions are ready, the Royal Commission on Dominion-Provincial relations completed organization here today.

Chief Justice Newton Wesley Rowell, Ontario, chairman of the five-man commission, said tonight he could not forecast a date for the opening session. "As soon as two or three of the provinces are ready with their submissions we will start," he said.

A "GIGANTIC TASK" because of the "enormous task" before the commission, Judge Rowell said, evidence would be heard from Dominion and Provincial Governments and spokesmen for "recognized public organizations," which desire to be represented.

Persons representing only their own opinions will not be heard, except in the possible event that the commission desires light on some particular problem and calls an expert for that purpose.

POPULATION CHIEF NEED

Prominent Men Say Country's Institutions Too Big For Full Use

VANCOUVER, Sept. 9 (P).—Two prominent Canadians—one a senator and the other director of colonization and agriculture for Canadian National Railways—today told the Canadian Chamber of Commerce convention here, that Canada's principal need was more population.

Senator J. W. deB. Farris, of Vancouver, said: "Our machinery, our bolters and our engines are too big for the steam we are able to generate." He said Canadians had laid the foundations and erected a superstructure for three or more times the present population.

The same thought was expressed by Dr. W. J. Black, of Montreal, who called for "constructive leadership" of the immigration problem, because "Canada needed more people."

"If we are to fulfill in any degree the destiny that Nature intended for us,"

"We have in abundance great public institutions... for a population three times the size we have," he said.

Dr. Black suggested Great Britain, the United States, Scandinavia, Switzerland, Czechoslovakia, Belgium, Holland and the Ukraine could provide Canada with the type of "good farming families" he needed.

ROYAL FAMILY ATTENDS GAMES

King and Queen at Braemar For Highland Gathering—Canadians Presented

BALMORAL, Scotland, Sept. 9 (P).—The Royal Family today attended the Highland gathering at Braemar and watched the various Scottish regiments and the Highland pipers.

Accompanied by Princess Elizabeth and Princess Margaret, and the Duke and Duchess of Gloucester, the King and Queen drove in an open carriage to the little Highland village where the historic games are held.

The programme included a display of Highland dancing and piping by massed bands and pipers.

A crowd of 25,000 jammed the narrow streets to welcome the royal party, who drove beneath an archway bearing the Gaelic inscription, "Ceud Mìle Fàilte a h-Ur Rìgh" (A Hundred Thousand Welcomes).

Two Canadians, Dr. and Mrs. Tait McKenzie, were among those presented to Her Majesty. A native of Almonte, Ont., Dr. McKenzie was on the McGill University staff for some years and now is a professor at the University of Pennsylvania. He is noted as a sculptor.

SCHOOLS STILL REMAIN CLOSED

Toronto, London, Edmonton To Further Guard Against Paralysis Spread

(By the Canadian Press)
Toronto, London and Edmonton moved again Thursday night to keep their children from schools, as the infantile paralysis epidemic, believed to be on the wane with the advent of cooler weather, claimed its fifty-seventh and fifty-eighth victims in Canada.

Toronto Board of Health, acting on the city council's recommendation, ordered a third postponement in reopening of schools, this time until September 20. Edmonton and London officials set the same date.

Meanwhile, health officials reiterated belief that cooling breezes from coast to coast had stemmed spread of the disease, though the weather's direct benefit will not be known for sure for another week or so. In that time the number of those afflicted by the paralytic virus in the hot days of early September will be known.

A new wireless beacon is already in operation at Vancouver, and next week another will be sending out its signals from Princeton, B.C.

New Singing Beacon Definitely Conquers Hazards of the Air

Pilots of Trans-Canada Airways Will Be Able to Fly With Complete Confidence in Darkness and Bad Weather

OTTAWA, Sept. 9 (P).—A newly-developed beacon has definitely conquered navigation hazards of cross-country flying, radio officials said here today, and pilots of the Trans-Canada Airways will soon be able to fly through darkness and bad weather in complete confidence they are on their course.

A new wireless beacon is already in operation at Vancouver, and next week another will be sending out its signals from Princeton, B.C.

Engineers of the Transport Department are erecting stations at two other British Columbia points, Grand Forks and Cranbrook, and eventually there will be thirty-two beacons between the West Coast and Montreal on the Eastern end of the trans-Canada route. Beacons will be erected in the Maritimes when that end of the route is opened.

British-Owned Property In Shanghai Destroyed During Rain of Missiles

Businessmen Staying With Their Interests Despite Continuous Threat From Bombs and Shells of Combatants—Violent Battle Raging Around Wharf Below City—Chinese Hold Fast

SHANGHAI, Sept. 10 (P).—Damage to British property in Shanghai increased today when the China Import & Export Corporation's warehouse was hit by a bomb, following a battle between Chinese air squadrons and Japanese naval forces.

While British property damage has been heavy and bombs and shells on many occasions have threatened lives in the international section, there was no sign that British businessmen intended to give up their interests in this great international trading city and flee.

Many, however, sent their wives and children in liners for Hongkong to escape the ever-present danger.

In London, the Canadian Press was informed that British nationals in Shanghai have not been advised to leave. Those wishing to leave were requested to notify the British authorities, but so few requests were received that special arrangements for evacuation were not considered necessary.

The United States has advised its citizens throughout China to leave the country.

A violent battle, with losses heavy on both sides, raged today around Jukong Wharf, midway between Yangtszepoo and Wusung.

The great lumber sheds broke into flames shortly before midnight, as Chinese planes raided Japanese lines.

WANT PROBE OF NAZI ACTIVITY

U.S. Senators to Ask Inquiry Into Actions of German Leaders

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9 (P).—Two Senators—Borah (R., Idaho) and Burke (D., Neb.)—declared today Congress should investigate Nazi activities in the United States.

They made their proposals in commenting on a Chicago Daily Times article declaring that German-American Nazi leaders are organizing American citizens with intent to seize control of the nation.

"On the first day of the next session, special or regular," Burke said, "I am going to introduce a resolution proposing a Senate committee investigation."

SAYS MATTER IMPORTANT The Idahoan, who charged on the Senate floor last session, that Nazi groups were training American youths in anti-American principles, said he deemed the matter "sufficiently important" to call for a special inquiry.

WILL USE WEAPON OF WAR TO HALT ATTACK ON SHIPS

Great Britain and France Agree on Force—Plans Call for International Fleet of Nine Powers—Italy and Germany Refuse to Take Part in Today's Conference

Fascist Nations Decline to Sit in Parley With Russia

LONDON, Sept. 9 (P).—Great Britain and France determined on force tonight as the only protection left for their Mediterranean shipping after Italy and Germany jointly refused to attend tomorrow's "anti-piracy" conference in Switzerland.

Anglo-French unity was cemented strongly by cleavage with the Fascist powers on the eve of what may prove one of the most vital meetings in Europe's recent history.

TO USE WARSHIPS Great Britain and France were in complete harmony on the use of their warships for "punitive action" to safeguard Mediterranean commerce. They agreed to discard a "preventive plan"—a system of restricted areas in which submarines would be forbidden—that they would have proposed had Germany and Italy attended.

Use of warships, called for organization of a nine-power international fleet with orders to sink any submarine threatening a neutral merchantman. Besides warships of Britain and France, the international fleet would include those of eight other seven nations participating in the parley—Greece, Turkey, Jugoslavia, Soviet Russia, Egypt, Rumania and Bulgaria.

Foreign Secretary Eden flew to Paris today and conferred on the Mediterranean crisis with Foreign Continued on Page 8, Column 7

REBEL GUNS POUND GIJON

Spanish Insurgents Making Sustained Attack on New Fortifications

HENDAYE, Franco-Spanish Border, Sept. 9 (P).—The guns of the Spanish insurgents pounded tonight against fortifications outside Gijon, the Government's last sea foothold on the northwestern edge of Spain.

Insurgent field pieces pounded the "Covadonga Line," a new network of fortifications thrown up on mountains bordering the coast, after retreating Government forces made a sudden stand and killed more than 1,000 insurgent troops.

HEAVY DAMAGE Aerial attacks on Gijon, which is about thirty miles west of the vanguard of Franco's main forces, also caused heavy damage.

The insurgents' coastal column passed Cape Prieto, just east of Ribadesella, where a Government-fortified line stands between it and the east bank of the Sella River, gateway to Gijon.

A central insurgent column was said to have "mopped up" scattered Government troops in the rugged mountains inland from the coast and to have massed its strength for a concerted attack with the coastal army at Sella River.

ENCIRCLE DEFENDERS Two other columns, one striking north from Oviedo and the other pressing outward from Pravia, established a junction. The operation completed the rapidly narrowing insurgent land ring, leaving Gijon's defenders encircled except for the sea at their backs.

Dispatches from Madrid, meanwhile, said that the defenders stabbed into insurgent siege lines to the west, bolstering their hold on territory recaptured in the recent Brunete campaign.

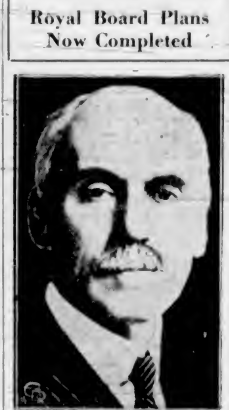

APPOINTED PROSECUTOR KINGSTON, Jamaica, Sept. 9 (P).—R. M. C. Smith, resident magistrate of St. Andrew, has been appointed Crown prosecutor of the Straits Settlements. It was announced here today. He will take over his new duties the end of October. St. Andrew is one of the five local administrative areas of Jamaica.

PARIS, Sept. 9 (P).—Any plan reached at the Nyon conference to end piracy in the Mediterranean, probably will be submitted to Italy and Germany for their agreement, but will be rigidly enforced regardless of their participation, it was predicted here tonight.

SAFETY GAS TANKS FOR AIRPLANES LONDON, Sept. 9 (P).—Gasoline fires, after airplane crashes, may soon be a thing of the past. The Air Ministry has perfected a gasoline tank which is crash, leak and fireproof. Following success of thirteen years of experiment, the safety tanks will be placed in both warplanes and civilian planes.

ITALY MIGHT YET ATTEND CONFERENCE ROME, Sept. 9 (P).—A Fascist official indicated tonight that Italy might agree to participate in the Nyon conference tomorrow, if it were made simply a deliberative body to submit proposals to the European non-intervention committee.

PRINCE CHRISTIAN OF DENMARK MARRIES COPENHAGEN, Sept. 9 (P).—Prince Christian of Schaumburg-Lippe, nephew of King Christian of Denmark, was married today to Princess Feodora, eldest daughter of Prince Harald and Princess Helene of Denmark.

HON. N. W. ROWELL

CHIEF Justice of Ontario and chairman of the Royal Commission on Dominion-Provincial Relations, who last night announced the programme of meetings to be held from coast to coast. The Commission will carry out the orders of the Dominion Government to investigate the present division of relief and social service obligations and the division of revenue resources between the Dominion and the Provinces.

DEATH TAKES D. E. CAMPBELL

Pioneer Victoria Druggist Passes at Home Following Long Illness

Duncan E. Campbell, pioneer druggist and respected citizen of Victoria for many years, passed away at his home, 1029 Linden Avenue, at 9:45 o'clock yesterday morning, after a lengthy illness. He had resided in Victoria for more than half a century and celebrated his eighty-first birthday here last month.

SEEK TO CURB OIL GAMBLING

Alberta Has New Regulations for Those Taking Out Leases

EDMONTON, Sept. 9 (P).—Designed to eliminate speculation in the oil and petroleum industry in Alberta, an order-in-council providing new regulations for taking out leases has been passed. It was announced here tonight by officials of the Provincial Department of Lands and Mines.

New regulations provide that a minimum of 10,000 and a maximum of 50,000 acres will be available to each applicant who must pay five cents an acre to prospect. Within forty-five days the applicant must carry out geological experiments and submit a preliminary report to the Government. Another forty-five days is allowed for completion of the survey.

If the applicant can show the time has not been sufficient, he may be granted another three months, at the end of which time all documentary evidence must be filed with the Government.

ANOTHER NOTE SENT TO LEAGUE

Chinese Government Brands Japan As Aggressor Nation—Makes Many Charges

NANKING, Sept. 10 (CP-Havah).—The Chinese Central Government today dispatched to the League of Nations a note branding Japan as an aggressor nation seeking the destruction of China. The note supplemented that of August 30, which directed Geneva's attention to the existence of Sino-Japanese hostilities.

Today's note dealt with political and military aspects of the present Sino-Japanese situation, the situation created by blockade of the Chinese coast by the Japanese navy, and charged Japan with attacks on Red Cross organizations, non-combatants and schools and churches.

Seeks Forger In New Westminster

NEW WESTMINSTER, B.C., Sept. 9 (P).—A forger, reported to have been operating here for the past two weeks, is being sought by Royal City police.

Twelve forged cheques, totalling more than $200, have been cashed in local stores. All were drawn on Vancouver banks and made out in the name of well-known Vancouver and New Westminster firms.

Social Activities and Notes of Personal Interest

Y.W.C.A. Groups Afford Wide Field of Interest

Winter Programme Is Drawn Up by Girls' Council—Folders Will Be Distributed at Provincial Fair—Games and Study Clubs Arranged

"Never before in the history of the Victoria Y.W.C.A. have so many leisure time pursuits been offered to the girls and young women who have time on their hands this winter," was the opening remark of Miss Edna Teagle, president of the "Y" Girls' Council, as they met together last night. A great deal of enthusiasm was shown by the girls in making this winter a success.

Toward this end, extensive plans are being made for opening night on September 23, and for the public booth at the Provincial Exhibition.

Miss Margaret Ryan, girls' secretary, presented the outline of the 1937-38 folder, which will be ready for distribution at the fair. This is attractively arranged, and presents the following programme groups:

INTEREST GROUPS

Home Nursing—A course of practical home nursing will be given by Miss A. Creaser, supervisor of the Victorian Order of Nurses, Victoria.

Camera Club—A study of the camera, and the art of developing and printing, will be taken under expert instruction.

Book, Travel and News Groups—For those who would be well informed, this group will be excellent. Study and discussion with a group is a stimulating experience.

Hobbycraft—Directed by Miss M. Beveridge, clay modeling, knitting, sewing, glove making, weaving, marionettes, and the making of novelties will be taught, if registrations justify such a group.

Dramatic Art—Directed by Miss Edith Cole.

Choral Club—Training in voice production, sight reading, choral work, etc., by Miss Kate Frances Ede, L.A.B. Accompanist, Miss Margaret Pringle, A.T.C.M.

LEADERSHIP COURSE

Group Leadership Course—The membership of this group is limited to those who are interested in group leadership from a practical point of view. Specialists will be in charge of the different phases. The psychological approach, club management, programme building, community needs and resources, worship in the programme. This study is given, together with practice in leadership, with supervision during the time of the course. Miss Helen Kirkwood, the general secretary, will be directing this course.

Badminton—A Wednesday evening badminton club will be formed.

with instruction and coaching for those who request it.

Basketball—The basketball group is open to all girls eighteen years or over, at the Y.M.C.A., Wednesday, at 7 p.m.

Bike-and-Hike Club—For the more energetic, on Saturday afternoon there will be the cycling or hiking trips to explore the by-ways and enjoy the out-of-doors.

The Self-Governing Clubs—With programmes which include dancing, play, discussion, service work, travel and personality talks, the seven self-governing clubs present opportunities for every girl, senior and teen age, to share in a friendly sociable group.

Cowichan Club Hears Talk by Mr. W. Thomson

DUNCAN, Sept. 9.—The September meeting of the Women's Canadian Club of Cowichan was held at the K. of P. Hall yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. D. A. Girvin presiding. The report of the nominating committee was brought in by Mrs. A. Sherman, the convener. Mrs. D. A. Girvin was the only nomination for president. Mrs. Cyril Pitt for first vice-president, Mrs. T. B. Gilmour for second vice-president, Mrs. C. W. O'Neill for secretary, and Mrs. B. O. Colbourne for treasurer.

There will be an election for the post of literary and press secretary, and two more members will be elected to the executive. The annual meeting will take the form of a reception with a musical programme and a full discussion of the convention reports.

The speaker for the afternoon was Mr. Watson Thomson, M.A., Glasgow. His subject, "The Art and Science of Being Human," was an extremely interesting one, and a number of questions were answered by the speaker at the conclusion of his address. He also listed a number of books on psychology which would prove helpful, among them being Kunkel's "Let's Be Normal," Bureau Wolfe's "How to Be Happy Though Human," Tregant Burrows' "The Social Basis of Consciousness," and Dr. George Groddeck's "The Unknown Self."

Miss Helen Kirkwood, the general secretary, expressed the thanks of the meeting to the speaker for his address. During his stay in Duncan, Mr. Thomson was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Girvin at Quamichan Lake.

Clubs and Societies

Malabar W.A.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Malabar Branch of the Canadian Legion held its monthly meeting on Tuesday evening in the S.L.A.A. Hall, with the president, Mrs. G. Orr, in the chair. A satisfactory report by the convener, Mrs. A. Sutton, showed a balance of $12 from the Gals Day home cooking stall. It was decided to start work immediately on sewing for the Christmas hampers. The secretary was asked to write letters of appreciation to Mrs. W. H. Booth and Mrs. R. Campbell, formerly on the provincial executive, for their interest in the local branch. Arrangements were made for the presentation of a gift to a member who has left to reside in Victoria. An excellent report of the recent convention in Penitence was given by the president, who attended as delegate. Refreshments were served by the Shawinigan members of the branch.

Native Daughters of B.C.

Post No. 3, Native Daughters of British Columbia, met on Wednesday evening in the K. of C. Hall, Mrs. J. Brown, the chief actor, presiding. Several activities were planned, the first of which will be a rummage sale at 2639 Douglas Street, on Saturday, September 18. Reports from the Grand Post meeting in Nanaimo, were read. Mrs. J. Mackintosh was elected to the office of outer sentinel, upon the resignation of Miss P. Kinnaird. Refreshments were served by Mrs. T. P. Waters, Mrs. F. Webb and the Misses H. and M. Andrews.

Canadian Legion W.A.

Prince Edward Branch, Canadian Legion, No. 91, Women's Auxiliary will hold its general meeting on Monday at 2:30 p.m. in the Legion Hall, Langford.

Cathedral Guild

The Women's Parish Guild of Christ Church Cathedral will meet this afternoon in the guild room at 2:30 o'clock.

Orange Juvenile Association

Pride of Victoria, Orange Juvenile Association, No. 55, will meet in the Orange Hall tomorrow at 2:30 p.m.

Church Workers

Mr. and Mrs. N. McGillivray, Prospect Lake, were hosts on Wednesday evening to a large gathering of workers of Wilkeson Road United Sunday school and adult Bible classes. After supper, a business meeting was held, with Mr. McGillivray, the superintendent, in the chair.

Careful consideration was given to the work of the Fall and Winter. Preparations were made for a special worship and promotion service for Rally Day on September 19. It was unanimously decided to devote October to temperance study in conjunction with the lessons set by the W.C.T.U. Miss Winnie Whitehead was elected as convener, with Mrs. W. Jewell and Rev. William Allan as leaders. A message of appreciation was extended to Miss E. Whitehead, who will soon be resuming her duties at Portland, Oregon.

The following members were welcomed to the teaching staff: Mrs. D. W. Phillips, Misses Florence Cummins and Jessie Swales, Messrs. O. Partridge and W. Allan. A hearty expression of appreciation was extended to Mr. and Mrs. McGillivray for their kind hospitality.

Smith and Jones met again after several years, and in the meantime, both had married. Naturally the conversation veered around to family affairs.

Said Smith: "I am going to try to get a divorce, for my wife hasn't spoken to me for over six months."

"Better be careful," replied Jones. "Don't do anything you'll be sorry for. You won't get another wife like that."

Grand March Will Be Led By Governor

Hon. Eric W. Hamber, Lieutenant-Governor, and Mrs. Hamber have consented to lead the grand march at the annual police ball, to be held at the Empress Hotel on Friday, November 5. Dancing will be held from 9 to 11 o'clock to the strains of a fourteen-piece orchestra.

Mayor Andrew McGavin and Mrs. McGavin, Police Commissioners, Cabinet Ministers, and a number of civic dignitaries will be present.

Chief Thomas Healey is honorary chairman of the ball committee. Detective Henry Jarvis is chairman and secretary: Constable Stanley Holmes, treasurer; Sergeant James Florence, convener of refreshments, and Constable George Clagard, convener of decorations. Sergeant Florence is at present in California investigating details of dances organized by police departments of other cities.

Tickets for the ball may be obtained from police headquarters or committee chairman.

U.S.-Born Woman Backs Old Land

BOSTON, Sept. 9.—Implying a pronounced belief that America should join the League of Nations and participate in European affairs, Lady Hattie Fisher-Smith, in her native America on a visit, also had something to say on war debts.

"Europe doesn't pay England," she pointed out. "How can England be expected to pay America?"

In marrying Sir George Fisher-Smith in 1890, Hattie Fisher, daughter of the Joseph Fisher, of Denham, forfeited her right to American citizenship. She has no intention of renewing it, she says.

Her romance flowered when she was in England on an educational tour. Her only son, E. L. Fisher-Smith, accompanied his mother on the trip. Sir George is dead.

American tea, by the way, does not now appeal to Lady Fisher-Smith's taste. She brought her own in a Coronation caddy.

For twelve years she has served as president of the Yorkshire Women's Liberal Federation, an organization of 40,000 women.

ST. MARY'S
The first meeting of the Fall season of St. Mary's A.Y.P.A. was held on Wednesday at the church hall with a large attendance, including many new members. Many important items were discussed. Lucie McKay and Dudley Keeley were chosen delegates to the Local Council A.Y.P.A. convention to be held in Vancouver. On Sunday, September 12, after the church service the installation ceremony of new officers will take place. Owing to fair weather, the next meeting will not be held until Wednesday, September 22, when there will be a social for members and friends.

Exhibit Will Be Of Great Interest

The Passion Play with the Bible story of Christ in sound motion pictures, will be presented during the Provincial Exhibition, commencing tomorrow, in a special theatre built in the exhibition grounds. It is a non-sectarian picture. The story is built up from verses of the Bible used as titles. With this feature picture there will also be shown a trip in the Holy Land and the scenes of Oberammergau.

At the entrance to the building there will be an interesting exhibit

Gifts in Ship

Miss Maggie Black, a September bride-to-be was feted on Wednesday evening when Mrs. M. B. Clawson and Mrs. A. Swan entertained at a miscellaneous shower at Mrs. Clawson's home on Arnot Avenue. Chrysanthemums and asters in autumn shades were prettily arranged in the reception rooms. As the bride-to-be entered the living-room, little Beverly Mitchell handed her a fragrant corsage bouquet of Talladega roses and also guided the "sailing ship" containing the many shower gifts. Games were played during the evening following which the hostesses served a buffet supper from a table prettily appointed with a mirror in the centre of the damask cloth, on which stood a handsome candelabra with ivory tapers surrounded by pastel shades. The guests were Mrs. D. L. Black, Mrs. C. E. Mitchell, Mrs. E.

Simmons, Mrs. E. Gray, Mrs. R. Foster, Mrs. E. Harvey, Mrs. William Pasmore, Mrs. E. Wilder, Mrs. F. Allen and Misses Margaret Thompson, Ellen McCaghey, Marjorie Hurst, Joan McKechnie, Anna Baine, Dora Higgins, Beatrice Rae-side, Margaret Winters, Marjorie Breckenridge and Mildred Williams.

Given Surprise Party

A surprise party was held on Wednesday evening by the Show-boat Baby Bette in honor of their teacher, Miss Betty Blair, the occasion being her birthday. The setting made a presentation to Miss Blair, after which they entertained the guests with some of their Show-boat dance specialties. Songs and games were enjoyed and refreshments served. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. Bickford, Mr. and Mrs. P. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. G. Schofield, Sr. and Mrs. J. Devlin, Mr. and Mrs. D. Logan, Mr. and Mrs. G. Garnie Schofield, Mr. and Mrs. L. ### Gifts Presented

Mrs. Alice McCabe and Mrs. J. W. Jones were hostesses on Wednesday evening at Mrs. McCabe's home on Lullie Street at a cup and saucer shower given in honor of Miss Iris Holyoak, whose marriage to Mr. William Allen will take place next week. Lovely peach-colored gladioli graced the reception rooms. The pretty gifts were presented to the bride-to-be in a huge peach crepe paper cup and saucer, the ingenious work of Mrs. C. W. Brown and Mrs. McCabe. Court what was played, the winner being Mrs. L. Gower. A sit-down supper was served at a table centered with a silver basket containing bridal wreath and asters and snapdragons in pastel shades, which were effectively reflected in the large mirror beneath them. Those present were Mrs. C. W. Brown, Mrs. A. H. Steer, Mrs. E. Rance, Mrs. L. Gower, Mrs. J. W. Jones (Royal Oak), Mrs. J. W. Holyoak, Mrs. A. McCabe and Misses Eva Orr, Margaret Gower and Sybil Holyoak.

Guest at Shower

Miss Ella Whyte was the guest of honor at a shower given by Miss Margaret Easton and Miss Vera Simpson at the home of Mrs. W. J. Simpson, Rithet Street. The rooms were decorated with pink and white streamers and flowers. The bride-to-be entered the room while the bride chorus was played by Miss Frances Wallace. The gifts were presented to her in a decorated box. Refreshments were served. Those present were Mesdames Whyte, Jones, A. Vivian, Brown, McKinnon, Simpson, and Misses Frances Wallace, Hilda McGillivray, Lillian McDonald, Lil Olsen and Mary Mathieson.

To Conduct Annual Tea And Bridge

The annual bridge tea of the Connaught Seamen's Institute will be held early in November at the Empress Hotel. It was decided at the monthly meeting held yesterday afternoon at the institute, with Mrs. Vernon Thomson in the chair. Mrs. R. W. McMurray will be the general convener.

The members stood in silent sympathy for the families of the late Mrs. Jardine and Mrs. James Duns-muir. It was reported that two sailors had died, Messrs. Worth and Martin.

During the month of July the institute was visited by 110 sailors and thirty-seven cadets, and thirty ships were visited, while in August twenty-six ships were visited and ninety-three sailors and twenty-four cadets signed the register.

Twenty-five pairs of socks and fourteen sweaters were reported on hand and a gift of scarfs, mitts and a helmet given the institute by an anonymous donor.

OFFER SERVICES OF ASSOCIATION

D. D. McTavish, president of the Victoria Automobile Association, and T. J. Goodlake, secretary, were appointed a committee to offer the services of the association to Attorney-General G. S. Wisner, K.C., in connection with proposed amendments to present legislation affecting car owners, at a recent directors' meeting. Mr. Goodlake announced yesterday.

It was explained that a resolution, recently adopted by the Vancouver City Council, had brought the matter of improving existing legislation concerning motoring in the province to the fore. Significant changes, either to the Motor Vehicles Act or the Highways Act, or both, are expected at the next sitting of the Legislature.

Fifty-three new memberships have been approved in the association. The new personal accident insurance policies issued with the memberships are largely responsible for the increase. Mr. Goodlake stated. A report of the insurance committee showed that the new service is being appreciated.

The report of the road signs committee pointed out that all signs on the Island Highway, from Victoria to Forbes Landing, have been repaired during the summer, while those on the Alberni Highway received similar treatment last year.

Local Council to Hear Miss Clay

The Local Council of Women will hold its first meeting of the season next Monday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, at the Y.W.C.A., when Miss Margaret Clay will give a resume of the Pan-Pacific conference, held recently in Vancouver. Miss Clay attended all sessions of the conference, and her account of the meetings will be of great interest to Local Council.

at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church at 2:30. Interment will be made in Royal Oak Burial Park. It is requested that no flowers be sent. A native of Fingal, Ontario, Mr. Campbell studied pharmacy at St. Thomas, coming to this province first in 1877. For a year after his arrival he did field and office work for the Canadian Pacific Railway, then under construction to the Coast. Following this he spent a year and a half in the drug business in California, returning to Victoria on receiving a wire from Victoria's earliest druggist, Thomas Shotbolt, saying that there was a position available for him in Mr. Shotbolt's store.

WENT TO YALE

Mr. Campbell worked here for two years in the employ of the Shotbolt Company, and then went to the thriving town of Yale, at the time an industrial and railway centre of 5,000 inhabitants, to set up a drug store there. Although the new business prospered under his capable direction, the store was burned to the ground in Yale's great fire.

At the time of the fire, Mr. Campbell was absent from the business on a fishing excursion, but he set out for Yale, after a brief stay in Victoria, to rebuild. On the trip up on the steamer Elizabeth J. Irving, shipped by Captain John Irving, a race was staged with the Western Slope, Captain William Moore, and in the course of the race the Elizabeth Irving caught on fire. In the fire, Mr. Campbell lost all his property for the second time in a few weeks. Returning to Victoria, he again entered the employ of Mr. Shotbolt.

ESTABLISHED STORE

In 1882, with the full consent and approval of Mr. Shotbolt, Mr. Campbell went into the drug business on his own, establishing a store on the northwest corner of Fort and Douglas Streets. His business genius, combined with the high standard of service he ever maintained, again made his business grow at a rapid rate, and in 1912 he built the eight-story Campbell Building on the southeast corner of the same intersection. The structure is one of the city's main business blocks.

Mr. Campbell remained in business until September, 1921, when ill health led to his retirement. The whole Mediterranean basin, were too large for the inactive neutrality committee and that speed was best served in Switzerland, where diplomats are gathered for the League of Nations session.

French Foreign Office sources predicted little would come from the overshadowed League of Nations meeting, at which three big questions were expected to be presented support to a number of the city's charities and social institutions. The Provincial Royal Jubilee Hospital, of which he was appointed board chairman in 1911, is especially indebted to him for his services.

A FORMER PRESIDENT

His activities also included active membership in the Union Club for many years, and strong support of the Victoria Golf Club. An early automobile enthusiast, Mr. Campbell bore the distinction of being one of the first presidents of the Victoria Automobile Club. He took part as well in the deliberations of the former Board of Trade.

Much loved by business partners and intimate friends alike, Mr. Campbell continued to be about the store after his retirement, although all financial connections with the business had been severed. He delighted to receive his former customers in the familiar surroundings and chat with them in an intimate and friendly way on the subjects of the day.

He is survived by his widow, four daughters, Mrs. George Tyson, Mrs. Nelson Lay, and the Misses Jean and Mary, all of Victoria; one son, Donald Campbell, of this city; and two grandchildren, Jean and Ian Tyson.

TO USE WARSHIPS TO END ATTACKS

Minister Delbos, while a committee of naval experts drafted plans for the international fleet.

Although there were no new incidents of aggression against Mediterranean shipping, the French Naval Ministry, incensed over the shooting down of a French mail plane over Oljon, Spain, prepared a pretext to the Spanish insurgents and ordered four destroyers from her Atlantic fleet to bolster her full Mediterranean force.

Germany and Italy acted in concert in rejecting invitations to the party, both refusing to sit with Soviet Russia, because of Moscow's sharp notes to Rome accusing Italy of sinking two Soviet merchantmen and demanding redress.

PROPOSALS REJECTED

Both submitted as a counterproposal that the Mediterranean issue be ironed out in the European "hands off Spain committee." That proposal was politely but firmly rejected. Britain and France contended that the issues involving the whole Mediterranean basin, were too large for the inactive neutrality committee and that speed was best served in Switzerland, where diplomats are gathered for the League of Nations session.

French Foreign Office sources predicted little would come from the overshadowed League of Nations meeting, at which three big questions were expected to be presented

RECOUNTS TRIP TO OLD COUNTRY

Frank Turley Tells Rotary Club of Coronation Parade and His European Visit

An interesting discourse on the Coronation, and his recent trip through Europe and attendance at the International Rotary Convention at Nice, France, was given to local Rotarians in the Empress Hotel yesterday by Frank Turley, local manager of the Imperial Oil, Limited.

Mr. Turley brought greetings from many continental clubs, and presented the president, T. J. Goodlake, with a small silver banner which was given him by the Dresden, Germany, Rotary Club.

The speaker dealt mainly on the Coronation, Nice convention and the Derby at Epsom Downs, the three reasons for his making the trip.

Through the courtesy of the High Commissioner's office at London, Mr. Turley secured two very good seats just outside Buckingham Palace, from where he witnessed the Coronation parade.

He described the general conditions in England as very good. "The depression is forgotten there," he said, "and there is very little unemployment. In fact, there is a great dearth of skilled labor. Buildings are being erected on all sides, he pointed out, while the natural beauty of England is all that it is advertised.

Mr. Turley also spoke on the entertainment features of the Nice convention, included in which was the colorful battle of flowers. As a result of his observations in Germany, he said the people there were efficient and seemed quite satisfied under Hitler's regime, although many of them did not agree with him.

Alec Landale was introduced as a new member.

How It Started

WHY DO WE CALL THE DRINKING GLASS A "TUMBLER?" "Tumbler"—a word of many meanings!

It may be an acrobat, a mechanical contrivance connected with a lock or firearm, a variety of domestic pigeon, a breed of hunting dog, a kind of cart—or a drinking glass with a solid, flat bottom!

Now, curiously and interestingly, in all the foregoing instances, each object known as a tumbler actually tumbles—in its ordinary course of use, habit or destiny—falls, but why should a drinking glass be so-called?

It is all because the original tumbler, after which the modern prototype is named had a pointed or convex base.

So, when there was liquor in it, it could not be set down till the imbiber had finished its contents, was completely through, after which it was either filled up again or laid aside.

I KNOW YOU'LL LIKE THIS NEW TEA!

ONE of the things every woman wants to know (and should know) is what makes good tea good. Well, it's all in the blending, and it's an expert's lifetime work. For instance, a really good tea includes the tender young Orange Pekoe tips of hill-grown teas, to give delicate aroma and invigorating, refreshing flavor; these tips are blended to give "body" (more cups per pound), bright infusion and satisfying strength. In precisely the right proportions such a blending has produced, after months of testing, a tea that is definitely better.

GULLS OF CITY LOOK ON SOUTH

"Follow the Birds" Sticker
Carried 8,000 Miles by U.S. Tourists

Victoria's attractive seagulls—those graceful birds whose miniature replicas are attached to the windshields of tourists' cars—travel far afield.

From nearby Yakima, Wash., comes a letter from Dora E. Duffield, who was here in the Summer of 1935 with a girl companion.

The Victoria sticker was allowed to stay on the windshield during the Winter of 1935-36, and last Summer was carried from Boise, Idaho, to Salt Lake City, Grand Canyon, Bryce Canyon, the Dallas Centennial, El Paso, Mexico, the Carlsbad Caverns, New Mexico, through the Gulf States into New Orleans, across Florida, northwards into Tennessee, Georgia, North and South Carolina, Kentucky and Virginia.

It was partially removed in Virginia by a garage man, and had it not been for that fact, it would have accompanied the car to New York, and thence to Callander, Ont., home of the Dionne quintuplets.

Miss Duffield, writing to George I. Warren, commissioner, Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau, declares that through 8,000 miles of territory, Victoria's seagull sticker attracted the most attention of any she carried.

Mr. Warren is forwarding two more Victoria "Follow the Birds" stickers to Miss Duffield.

REPORTS OF BAR MEETINGS GIVEN

Delegates Tell Victoria Association Of Gatherings Held During Summer Months

Members of the Victoria Bar Association at the luncheon meeting of the body yesterday in Spencer's dining-room heard a report by Arthur Courtney from the Washington Bar Association meeting held in Bellingham in August, which he attended as a member of the British Columbia Bar. He spoke in the highest terms of the splendid reception that was accorded him at that gathering and told of the excellent work being done by the Washington Bar to improve the standing of the profession.

There was a disposition, he said, to get more in line with the British law practices there.

A. D. Crease pointed out that the Washington Bar Association had extended to him an invitation to deliver an address at the convention. He regretted that he was not able to attend.

J. G. Rutan also gave a brief report touching on some of the points gathered at the meeting of the Canadian Bar Association in Winnipeg. In this connection, he stressed the attention given to the younger members of the bar. This work was backed up by some of the leading members of the bench and the bar, and the junior practitioners' work was to be continued.

Jane Dixon Says:

ROUND-UP DAY: WHAT TO DO WHEN YOUR BEST FRIEND TRIES TO MONOPOLIZE YOUR FIANCE—NOTHING STIMULATES APPRECIATION LIKE BEING MISSED—THE MOTHER WHO INSISTS THAT HER SON BREAK HIS ENGAGEMENT SIMPLY BECAUSE SHE DISLIKES THE GIRL—THE WOMAN WHO REFUSES TO GRANT HER HUSBAND A DIVORCE SO HE CAN MARRY ANOTHER WOMAN

Another week, another round-up!

Kate T. What do you do when your best friend deliberately tries at all times to monopolize the attention of your fiance? Get a new "best friend," and if your fiance consents to be monopolized, get a new fiance, too.

Tired Wife: Use the money you have earned by baking cakes for your friends to buy yourself some bright, becoming clothes. The new refrigerator can wait. By all means make the visit to the favorite cousin, who has the lovely home and who has extended you such a cordial invitation to "come and stay with us as long as you can." And make it a real visit, a couple of weeks instead of the few days you thought you might take for "rest and a little taste of fun." Nothing stimulates appreciation like being missed.

J. N. D. Your mother insists that you break your engagement to the girl you love and who loves you because she "doesn't like the girl." Mother gives you no reason for this dislike other than, "She's not your kind." You know the girl to be well-behaved, industrious, loyal and loving. How can you persuade your mother to your way of thinking? That is a difficult problem, young man. Unreasonable persons are not readily persuaded. You will have to make your mother understand that the choice of the right girl is final, and that no one will be allowed to interfere with what you are convinced is your life's happiness. It may be that when mother realizes your decision she will change her mind about the girl and accept her gracefully as a prospective daughter.

Miriam. What can you do when the man you love, who has begged you to marry him as soon as he is free, has a wife who refuses to give him up? You've gone to her and told her he means everything in the world to you and he has told her the same about you. She just "travels" and says it is an infatuation that he'll tire of you the same as he did of her. You know better. You know it is "the real thing." And your life will be ruined if you have to give the man up. If it is the real thing, Miriam, it will last, so be patient. After all, asking a wife to give up her husband so you can have him is a pretty bold piece of business. This is a matter to be settled between husband and wife, and you should have the good sense and the good taste to hold yourself aloof from any entanglement until such time as the man is free to offer you his love and marriage.

Business Woman. By all means retain the ownership of your business which is a legacy from your husband for yourself and your children. One should have very grave doubts of the honesty of purpose of a man who proposes marriage with the proviso that you turn also over to him. He has a minor job in a rival store. You operate a profitable business which has grown under your management. How do you know or how does he know that he can operate a business? If the man has a sincere love for you he will want to prove himself before he makes demands. I should refuse the offer of marriage until it was placed on a basis of partnership, not of bossism.

Edgar. You owe an apology to the girl for allowing your temper to "get the best of you" and leaving her at the dance without an escort. Express regret for your behavior in a friendly note, and since you care so much for the girl, hope ardently that she will forgive you.

R.C.M.P. Horsemanship

This horse with the boarding house reach failed to disturb the four "Mounties" enjoying a card game on the table, as it leaped over their heads. It was an interesting piece of horsemanship displayed by Royal Canadian Mounted Police, at their annual sports day in Regina.

To Guide You in Shopping
Smartly for the Coming Season

INTEREST centres in new clothes and styles. SILHOUETTE is slim and corseted in appearance.

DRESS TOPS receive the most attention. COATS are newest when straight and box-like.

FUR used with moderation as a trimming. SWAGGER BACK COATS have closely fitted fronts.

SHOULDERERS boxed, sleeves plain. SUITS are an essential part of every wardrobe.

WOOLS, especially plaids, in high favor. VELVETS of the non-crush variety everywhere.

BLACK the most approved color. RHUM BROWN tones the newest.

WINE SHADES and dark green popular. HATS soar high or take a side-hang slant.

OPERA PUMP variations are endless. GLOVES much longer and dressier.

JEWELRY like that of high Hindu Princes.

ESTABLISH FORT ROSS

Hudson's Bay Company Officials, Are Left in Charge Of New Post

ABOARD SS. NASCOPE, PRINCE REGENT INLET, Sept. 9 (CP, By Wire).—The Hudson's Bay Company ship Nascope, carrying the Government's Eastern Arctic patrol, cleared from Port Ross on Bell Strait last night after being delayed thirteen hours by a snowstorm.

Three Hudson's Bay Company officials were left in charge of Fort Ross, the post being constructed within the past week from materials landed from the Nascope. An insulated house, heated by a coal-burning range, was built, a warehouse constructed for perishables and the men made as comfortable as possible.

Major D. H. McKend, commander of the patrol, believes the construction of Fort Ross is "an outstanding achievement in Arctic administration." He is confident the post will provide good opportunities for scientific exploration. It is on the southeast shore of Somerset Island, which is separated from Boothia Peninsula, the northern tip of the Canadian mainland, by Bell Strait.

The schooner Akavik, from Cambridge Bay in the Western Arctic, expects to leave Bell Strait in a day or two. Patsy Kilgusberg, famous trader of the Western Arctic, is aboard with his family and will be left at King William Island with a year's supply of food.

RELATIONS SHATTERED

Head of Japanese Economic Mission Sorry Over Far East Fighting

QUEBEC, Sept. 9 (CP).—Regret at the big loss to Japan's trade which would follow current Japanese aggression in China was expressed today by Okyo Kadono, Tokyo, chairman of the Japanese Economic Mission which recently toured Europe and America. Mr. Kadono landed here on the liner Empress of Britain.

"I am very sorry, indeed, about the fighting in the Far East," Mr. Kadono said, "and I feel sure that many other Japanese at home are sad at the thought of the damage it will do to our Empire's trade."

"We were getting along fine all over the world. When we left home, relations between our country and China were of the best, but now they are shattered."

Appointed Collector Of Customs for Port Of New Westminster

NEW WESTMINSTER, Sept. 9 (CP).—Angus G. Fadden has been appointed collector of customs and excise for the port of New Westminster, succeeding Percy R. Peale. It was announced here today. Mr. Peale retired recently.

The district covers all the area between Chilliwack and the Gulf of Georgia.

Mr. Fadden has been in the Customs Department since 1910.

NOTICE TO MARINERS

Mariners are advised that the light and fog alarm at Gallows Point, Nanaimo Harbor, will be out of operation for a few days, starting on or about September 14, to enable the construction of a new shelter for same. During construction a white fixed light will be shown from a coal oil lantern.

MONTREAL, Sept. 9 (CP).—Bar gold in London down 1c at $34.76 an ounce in Canadian funds, 140s 4d in British funds. The fixed $35 Washington price amounted to the same in Canadian funds.

NOT RECEDING FROM DEMANDS

Teamsters Insist on Unconditional Surrender in Warehousemen Dispute

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9 (AP).—Besieged C.I.O. longshoremen today asked a Federally supervised election among their warehouse workers as a means of halting jurisdiction warfare being waged against them by American Federation of Labor teamsters.

The teamsters previously had rejected similar informal proposals by C.I.O. leader Harry Bridges, who offered to submit to "any democratic process" for just settlement of the dispute.

Teamsters leader, John P. McLaughlin, could not be reached immediately for comment, but his associates indicated privately the union would not recede from its demand for unconditional surrender by the longshoremen of all claims to jurisdiction over warehousemen remote from the waterfront.

Federal authorities said the Labor Act would require consent of all affected groups before the board could call such an election.

The ten-day-old teamsters' blockade of the San Francisco waterfront saw a further piling up of cargo at the piers, although the longshoremen said about 1,500 of their members still were at work.

FROZEN FISH EXPERIMENT

Consignment of Salmon Is Carefully Guarded in Transit to Britain

VANCOUVER, Sept. 9.—Several thousand British Columbia salmon left over Canadian National Railways on a personally-conducted tour to Great Britain yesterday in the latest air-conditioned equipment guaranteed to keep their thin skin of ice intact throughout the long journey.

In the nature of an experimental shipment, the cars being used for the consignment embody the latest ideas in railway transport refrigeration. "Traditional" ice-bunkers at each end of the car are gone. Instead the ice containers are located just under the roof so that cold air

SALMON PACK IS FAR DOWN

Sockeye Almost 100,000 Cases Short of This Time Last Year

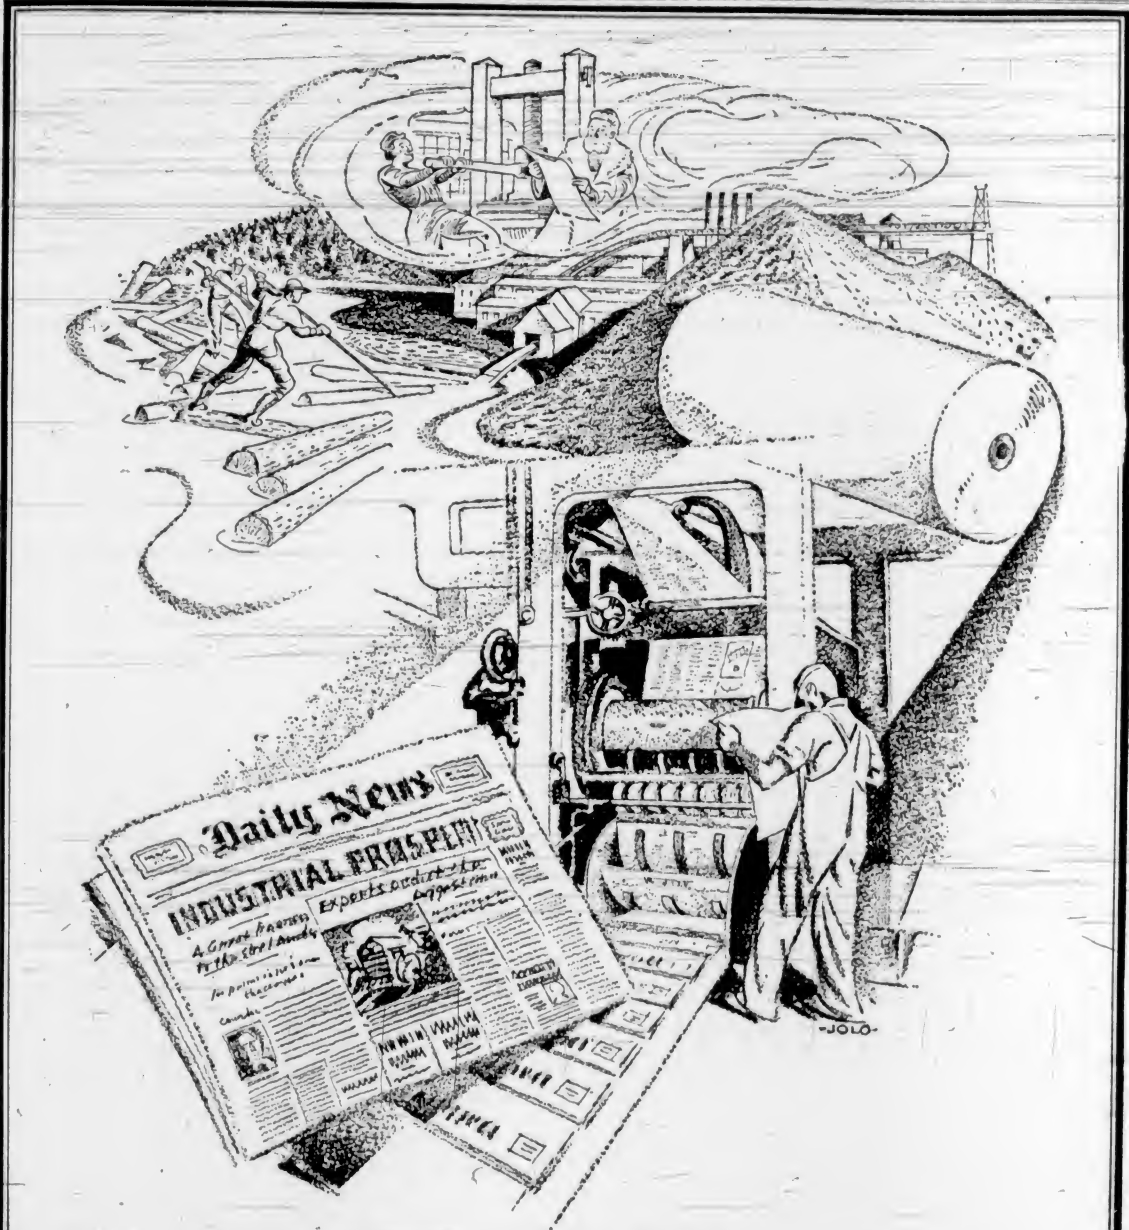

VANCOUVER, Sept. 9 (CP).—The British Columbia total salmon pack for the week ending September 4 was far below the total for the same week last year, it was shown in a bulletin issued today by the chief supervisor of fisheries.

The current week's total was 953,236 cases, as compared with 1,282,893 cases for the same week one year ago.

Canned sockeye salmon in all British Columbia areas totaled 322,141 cases, as against 397,667 cases for the same week in 1936, while pink and chum species also showed a considerable drop.

DUE HERE IN MORNING

No further advice having been received from the ship at the local office of Canadian Pacific Steamships, the arrival time of the St. Empress of Asia remains the same. The liner will reach William Head at 5 a.m. tomorrow morning and should be alongside Rutherford Pier by 7 o'clock. It is understood there will be a number of Shanghai refugees aboard the Asia.

Bulwarks of Prosperity

Scarcely less important than the dependable news service they provide every day is the contribution the Canadian daily newspapers make, as an industry, to the economic welfare and prosperity of the nation.

Apart from the work of collecting, transmitting and editing news from every corner of the world, many subsidiary trades and enterprises have been established and prospered that the personal service your daily newspaper provides could be extended and maintained.

Directly and indirectly the daily newspapers of Canada provide employment to tens of thousands of Canadian citizens in all parts of the Dominion, from logging camps and paper mills to the printing presses of your local daily newspaper.

Today, it is estimated that more than a half million Canadians are dependent for their livelihood upon the newspaper industry.

Consequently, in addition to providing an essential service to more than two million families every day, the Canadian daily newspapers make an important contribution to the economic and industrial welfare of the nation.

FOREST CUT
IS ANALYZEDUnduly Heavy Proportion of Douglas Fir Being Cut in Coast Region

Reporting forest products to the value of $72,010,000 handled last year, including $36,100,000 from lumber and $14,950,000 from pulp and paper, the annual report of the B. C. Forest Branch for 1936 is now off the presses at the King's Printer.

The official log scale for the twelve month period was 3,020,773,194 board feet, of which 2,544,446,912 were cut in the Vancouver Forest District, mainly on Vancouver Island. At that level the cut was the third largest ever known in the province, and within 10 per cent of production in the peak year of 1929.

CUT UNBALANCED

The report draws attention to many favorable factors in the recovery of world markets for British Columbia forest products, including pulp development, but emphasizes again the unbalanced state of the cut by species. Under this latter head the report urges attention to the creation of new markets for western hemlock and cedar, stating in part:

"The most disturbing factor is the unbalanced nature of our timber-cut in so far as species are concerned. More than 55 per cent of the log scale was Douglas fir, which species comprises approximately one-quarter of our visible supply. To bring about a more balanced cutting, there should be no delay in developing markets for cedar and western hemlock."

SEEK MARKETS

"We must endeavour to familiarize importing countries with the excellent qualities of our cedar and hemlock. The amount of hemlock cut and shipped is small in comparison with Douglas fir, and quite out of proportion with the ratio of these species in our timber stands. Failure to balance utilization in these species must inevitably react to the disadvantage of the whole industry."

The increase in total cut of these species on the Lower Coast from 1935 to 1936 was 9 per cent for hemlock, 13 per cent for cedar, and 19 per cent for fir. This is a most undesirable trend, the report, prepared under the direction of Hon. A. W. Gray, Minister of Lands, stated.

CIVIC HOLIDAY

Wednesday Afternoon So
Citizens May See Fair

Wednesday afternoon, September 15, has been declared a civic holiday by Mayor Andrew McGavin so that all citizens will be afforded an opportunity of attending the seventy-sixth annual exhibition of the British Columbia Agricultural Association at the Willows.

The City Hall will be closed at 12:30 p.m., and it is expected that all firms will co-operate to the same degree, so that the employees may attend the fair.

All persons on relief will be provided with passes to the fair on Wednesday afternoon, while children of school age will be admitted without charge. This is a rule that always prevails during exhibition week.

(By James W. Barton, M.D.)

THE USUAL WARNING ABOUT APPENDICITIS

At least once a year I feel it my duty to talk about appendicitis. Not that there is anything new to tell but to give the same warning as of previous years to that large number of people who do not know the terrible consequences of making three serious, though natural, mistakes when there is a pain in the abdomen.

These mistakes are (a) giving a laxative to "clear out the bowel," (b) allowing food to be eaten, (c) delaying the calling of a physician.

Some idea of the danger of giving laxatives and these figures have been given before) was recorded in Hygeia a couple of years ago.

"By a survey of hospital records, the Medical Society of Philadelphia showed that in cases in which a laxative had been given seven per cent of the patients died, but where no laxative had been given only two per cent died. In other words, when a laxative was used one person out of fourteen died, but when there had been no laxative, one out of forty-six died. When only one laxative, or one dose of a purgative (stronger medicine) was given, one in seventeen persons died; but when a number of laxatives had been given one in five died."

What should be done when a sharp pain occurs in the lower right side of abdomen, which pain perhaps started near the pit of the stomach and then went down to lower right side and remained there?

"The patient should lie down, preferably on the back. No laxative or cathartic should be given by mouth. If there is good reason to believe that the bowel should be emptied, a small enema—a pint of warm water containing a teaspoonful of table salt (but no soap) should be given slowly. Nothing should be given to ease or deaden the pain as this would make it difficult for the physician, if called later, to tell whether or not the case was appendicitis. If the pain continues—in the one cilia.

In "The Face That Kills," forceful tragedy of youthful transgressions, starring Lois January and Noel Madison, which opens an engagement at the Plaza Theatre on Monday, an excellent musical background is featured. Highlighting the tuneful score are numbers by Nona Lee and Maury Peck presented in a highly entertaining cabaret scene.

New York Giants Increase Margin In Pennant Race

Divide Double-Header With Brooklyn Dodgers, But Cubs Are Trimmed by Cardinals and Terry's Crew Gains Another Half Game—Red Sox Trounce Yankees—Tigers Beat Indians

BROOKLYN, N.Y., Sept. 9 (AP).—The pace-making New York Giants clinched the defeat of their south-

Young Luke Hamlin's six-hit fling—and superb control in the pinches—were too much for the Giants in the opener. Big Babe Phelps, closing, including a three-run homer in the first inning, was too much for Hubbell, and the Dodgers took a 5-1 decision.

Led by mauling Mel Ott, who smashed four hits, the Giants came back to take the second game with a sustained show of power. Their own starting pitcher, Lefty Al Smith, lasted only three innings, but the league leaders pounded Roy Henshaw, Jim Linsday and Ben Cantwell for fourteen safeties and won going away.

What the Giants didn't do with their bats, the Dodgers finished with their arms. A three-inning defensive mull by Eddie Wilson and a two-base miscue by Jimmy Bucher, both on short-fly balls from Jack McCarthy's bat, contributed to the scoring melee, together with three wild pitches.

Hubbell's defeat was his seventh, as compared with eighteen victories.

First Game—R. H. E.
New York ..... 000 001 000—1 6 2
Brooklyn ..... 300 020 003—5 8 1
Batteries: Hubbell, Coffman and Mancuso; Hamlin and Phelps.

Second Game—R. H. E.
New York ..... 210 120 300—9 14 0
Brooklyn ..... 002 000 000—2 8 2
Batteries: Smith, Coffman and Dunning; Henshaw, Lindsey, Cantwell and Phelps.

CHICAGO, Sept. 9 (AP).—Through the combination of steady six-hit pitching by Lon Warneke and a sixteen-hit blast against Charley Root and Roy Parmelee, the St. Louis Cardinals finally routed their Cub "jinx" today and whipped the Chicagoans, 8-2.

It was the first defeat for the Cubs in twelve meetings with the Redbirds and sent them back an additional half game behind the league-leading Giants, who now boast a three-game margin over them.

The thirty-eight-year-old Root, making his first appearance in twelve days due to arm weariness, held his former colleague, Warneke, even for six innings in a 1-1 pitching duel, but tired visibly in the seventh when the Cards punched home three runs. They added three runs in the eighth and one in the ninth off Parmelee, who came to the plate from St. Louis along with the injured Rip Collins in the deal for Warneke last winter.

Warneke's triumph was his seventeenth of the season and his record over his ex-mates. He was in difficulty only in the second inning, when Stan Hack singled with one out, scooted to third as St. Louis hurler threw slightly wild and on an attempted force play and then scored on Phil Cavarretta's single.

Batteries: Parnell and Atwood; Henshaw, Gable and Lopez.

VAUGHAN WINS GAME
PITTSBURGH, Sept. 9 (AP).—Arky Vaughan's ninth-inning triple and Bill Brubaker's single gave Pittsburgh a 1-0 triumph over Cincinnati today. It was the thirtieth time this season the Reds have been beaten by one run.

AMERICAN LEAGUE
DETROIT, Sept. 9 (AP).—Bilgy Kopp's single with the bases full in the last half of the ninth inning enabled the Detroit Tigers to nose out the Cleveland Indians, 10-9, today.

Hudlin, Harder and Sullivan; Lawson, McLaughlin, Gill and York.

BROWNS BEATEN AGAIN
ST. LOUIS, Sept. 9 (AP).—The third-place Chicago White Sox made a clean sweep of the two-game series with the Browns, nosing out the cellar dwellers today, 9-8. It was the eleventh game in which the Browns have failed to register a triumph.

ST. LOUIS ..... 020 031 120—9 18 3
St. Louis ..... 022 110 011—8 18 1
Batteries: Rigney, Cain, Brown and Sewell; Trotter, Vanatta, Hildebrand, Walkup, Koupal and Huffman.

SENIORS TAKE FAIR
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9 (AP).—The Washington Senators won both ends of an American League double-header with the Athletics today, taking the first game 13-6 and the second 12-10.

Seven runs scored in the fourth inning of the opener and nine in the third stanza of the nightcap.

First game—R. H. E.
Washington ..... 002 271 010—13 13 2
Philadelphia ..... 310 000 000—6 5 2
Batteries: Lananah, Kraskauskas and R. Perrell; Kelley, Pink, Archer, Turberville and Hayes.

Second game—R. H. E.
Washington ..... 009 030 000—12 17 1
Philadelphia ..... 010 300 303—10 11 3
Batteries: Luke, Cohen, Phobus and Milles; Williams, Wilson and Brucker.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9 (AP).—The Boston Red Sox wore themselves out today hitting and running the bases, but it was worth it since they hampered their favorite "jinx," the Yankees, into a 13-7 defeat, ending the New Yorkers' six-game winning streak.

After spotting the Yanks four runs in the first inning, they came from behind twice to chalk up the victory with a sixteen-hit attack at the expense of the Yankee "M-men"—Dwight Gooden, Johnny Murphy and Frank Makosky, with Murphy the official loser.

First Game—R. H. E.
New York ..... 000 501 340—13 16 6
Boston ..... 400 210 000—7 10 1
Batteries: McKain, Marcum and Cantwell and Phelps.

Titleholder and Overlin All Set For Seattle Bout

SEATTLE, Sept. 9 (AP).—Midweight Champion Freddie Steele and Challenger Ken Overlin concluded heavy training work today for their fifteen-round title match here Saturday night.

Overlin weighed 162 pounds—two pounds over the limit—after a gym session of four rounds today. The Washington, D.C., fighter, figured to work off a pound warming up tomorrow and to dry out the remaining pound by weighing in time Saturday afternoon.

Steele, the pride of Tacoma, is down to 161, and his handlers weren't worried about Freddie shedding his excess ounces.

Promoter—Nate Brukman said tonight the fight would go on ahead of the semi-final and in all likelihood would start about 9 p.m.

HOPKINS WILL OPPOSE PEARS

Old Rivals Clash Tomorrow Evening in Main Event Of Mat Show

With the cream of Victoria grapplers booked for the show, Promoter Fred Richardson will present an all-local mat card tomorrow evening at the Tillikum gymnasium. Five bouts, with the first slated to commence at 8:45 o'clock, will complete the show.

Johnny Pears and Reg Hopkins, leading local wrestlers, will renew their feud in the ten six-minute-round main event. Two colorful performers, well versed in all the tricks of the bone-bending game, Hopkins and Pears are popular with the Victoria fans.

George Lowe, the Chinese boy with color and good wrestling, and Bill Steen, curly-haired Victoria grappler who has seen a lot of action in the squared circle, are booked for the semi-windup. The boys are billed for five six-minute sessions and should put on a great show.

Bing Quon, another Chinese exponent of the grunt and groan pastime, and "Legs" Hay, lanky local boy, will open the show with an event of four five-minute rounds. In the preliminaries, Pat Morris will meet Jack Frost and Young Yorgalis will oppose Jim Casey.

Up and Over to Tie for First Honors

Thrills and spills often occur when the horses start clearing the hurdles. Fortunately there were no spills for Miss Anne Wright, riding Royal Cocade. She is pictured taking one of the obstacles in the amateurs' jumping event at the North Shore Horse Show, held at Old Field Club at Stony Brook, L.I. Miss Wright tied with Helen Bedford for first honors. Miss Bedford won the jump-off.

Favorites Advance To Semi-Finals of National Net Meet

Don Budge, Frankie Parker, Jadwiga Jedrzejowska and Helen Jacobs Reach Semis as Play Continues in U.S. Tennis Championships

FOREST HILLS, N.Y., Sept. 9 (AP).—Two contenders who had not lost a set kept those records clear and two others who had encountered early difficulties came through with ease today as the vacant semi-final brackets were filled in the combined men's and women's national singles championships.

Four performances which were impressive enough to make up for a lack of the thrills which attended yesterday's programme were supplied by J. Donald Budge, as strong a favorite as his hair is red, Jadwiga Jedrzejowska, Frankie Parker and Helen Jacobs.

Budge, with an ace that baffles description, mopped up the nineteen-year-old junior champion from Los Angeles, Joe Hunt, 6-2, 6-2, 6-4, and tomorrow will go up against Parker, his Davis Cup singles mate, who took a 6-2, 12-10, 6-2 decision from Johnny Van Ryn, the Austin, Tex., doubles ace.

POLISH GIRL WINS
Miss Jedrzejowska, rarely faltering with the booming forehands that have established her as top choice for the women's crown, defeated Ruth Mary Handwick, another hard hitter from England, at 6-4, 6-2.

"Wa-Ja" thus moved into a meeting with Miss Jacobs, perennial contender and four-time former champion, who won out at 7-5, 6-3 over Kay Stammers, English miss, who was unable to keep her southpaw shots under control.

Tomorrow's other semi-final contests will pair Bobby Riese, second seeded American from Los Angeles, against Baron Gottfried von Cramm, Germany's last foreigner survivor; and Anita Lizana, next to Miss Jedrzejowska on the list of favored invaders, against Dorothy May Bundy, the Santa Monica, Cal., youngster who yesterday disclosed 1936 Champion Alice Marble.

HOLLYWOOD IN FINE TRIUMPH
Blank Painter's Bruins, 6-0, In First Game of City Softball Playdowns

Playing championship ball behind the one-hit pitching of Tommy Johnston, their ace hurler, Hollywood Club "B" softballers upset the dope bucket yesterday evening, at Victoria West Park, when they blanked Painter's Bruins, Vancouver Island champions, 6-0. In the first game of the city play-offs.

For four innings Johnston twirled no-hit ball. In the last of the fifth, with two men down, Normie Stewardson, Bruins' outfielder, sneaked the only bingle of the five-inning game and robbed the Hollywood hurler of a "no-hitter."

Harold Turner, on the hill for the losers, was nicked for six safeties. Score by innings:
Hollywood Club ..... 020 22-6
Painter's Bruins ..... 000 00-0
Batteries—Johnston and Parey; Turner and Berry.

The second game of the series will be played at Bullen Park, Esquimalt, at 10:30 o'clock Sunday morning, with Holness and Revell in charge. If the Bruins win, a third game will be played at 3 o'clock in the afternoon with the same officials in charge.

SOCCER WORKOUT
Victoria West Football Club will hold a workout at Heywood Avenue at 10:30 o'clock, Sunday morning. All of last season's players and any others wishing to play for the club, are asked to attend.

WINNERS AT COLWOOD
Mrs. H. F. Crowe and Mrs. R. I. Pycok won top honors in the monthly medal competition held at the Colwood course. The former turned in a card of 97-16-81 and the latter scored 97-19-78.

U.S. PROFESSIONALS FIRE ROUNDS OF 67 ON EASTERN COURSE

Break Par by Three Strokes to Pace Field in Canadian Open Championship at Toronto—Champion Lawson Little Has 74—Burke and Oliver Turn in Scores of 69

By ELMER DULMAGE
(CANADIAN PRESS BUREAU)

ST. ANDREWS GOLF CLUB, TORONTO, Sept. 9 (AP).—Lighthouse Harry Cooper, the best medal scorer of them all, and veteran Leo Diegel, four times winner of the crown, scored a startling 67, three under par, to share the lead today on the first eighteen-hole round of the Canadian open golf championship.

Leo missed a six-foot putt on the eighteenth green for 66. He first won the title in 1924 and there was no one in the gallery today to see the crouching putter, might not put it over again.

Defending champion Lawson Little found plenty of trouble on the 6,685 yards of territory. The burly littleholder, former king of the world's amateurs, had to cover the last nine holes in per 35 to keep within shooting distance of the leaders. At that he was seven strokes back with 74.

The immediate competition was provided by broad-shouldered Ed Oliver, of Wilmington, Del., and stout Billie Burke, of Cleveland.

former United States open champion. They had 69.

Three strokes off the pace were Ed Dudley, of Philadelphia, and Vic Chizzell, of Deal, N.J., with par 70, and another stroke back was Ralph Guldahl, American open champion. After a Summer of brilliant shooting by Canadian pros, the opening day was marked by a general fall-down on the part of domestic players. Top Canadians were Bobby Alston, of Ottawa, and R. H. Green, of Kingston, Ont., who had 72.

Bracketed with the best Canadians were Willie Goggin, of San Francisco; Jimmy Hines, of Garden City, N.Y.; Horton Smith, of Oak Park, Ill.; and Jimmy Thomson, Shawnee-on-Deleware, Pa.

The major Canadian challenge was just six strokes behind the lead set by Diegel and Cooper. At 73 were such home stars as Art Hubert, Toronto; Stanley Hart, Ottawa; Lloyd Tucker, Kitchener, Ont.; and amateur Phil Farley, Montreal.

Farley was the leading amateur, with Bud Donovan, of Winnipeg, trailing at 74, and the favored Bobby Reith, of Winnipeg, at 76. Deadlocked with Donovan were Ben Norris, Peterborough, Ont.; Leo O'Grady, Williamsville, N.Y.; Jules Hout, Quebec; R. W. Wilkinson, Tupper Lake, N.Y.; and Ernie Wakelam, Ottawa.

CHICAGO, Sept. 9 (AP).—Ralph Flanagan, of Miami, Fla., swimming almost a solo, set a new American record of 20:42.6 today in winning his third straight men's National A.A.U. one-mile title.

SETS NEW JUMP RECORD

A seventeen-year-old girl, Miss Dorothy Odam, set a new British high jump record for women at the A.A.A. championships in London, when she cleared 5 feet 4.3 inches. Two days before the event she injured one of her ankles, and it was twice its normal size when she broke her own record of 5 feet 4 inches.

CHAMPIONSHIP DOG SHOW IS CARDED HERE

Crystal Garden Will Be Scene of Big Event—Many Fine Entries

With entries received from California, Washington, Oregon and different parts of British Columbia, the Vancouver Island Dog Fanciers' Association Jubilee all-breed championship show tomorrow at the Crystal Garden promises to be the largest event of its kind presented in this city for many a day. The show will open at 10:30 o'clock in the morning, and before the event closes late at night local fanciers and dog-lovers will be afforded the opportunity of seeing many of the aristocrats of the canine world on parade.

Horace Wilkinson, Vancouver and formerly of England, who has gained international recognition as a judge, will place the awards.

Many breeds never before benched at Vancouver Island shows will be seen at the monster event tomorrow at the Crystal Garden. California is sending a strong representation from leading kennels, while Washington and Oregon will have some of its leading dogs here in quest of the many handsome prizes.

During the evening there will be a champions' parade, and a parade of all of the dogs entered in the show. A silver tea service and tray will be given away.

MANY HANDSOME AWARDS
Many and varied are the handsome trophies donated for the event by leading citizens and local business houses in their desire to help the championship show. Hon. Eric W. Hamber, Lieutenant-Governor, has donated a beautiful sterling silver cup for the best sporting dog in the show. Other donors include R. P. Huddart, Herbert Anselcomb, M.P.P., The period Arla, B. C. Electric Pet Shop, Reginald Hayward, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Hancock, Captain and Mrs. Bloomfield, Mrs. Bayley, Mrs. and Miss Hurrell, McGill and Orme, Swift Canadian, Mitchell and Duncan, Howard Little and many others. Spratts Challenge Cup will go to the best in the show. The prizes will be on display today in the window of the Pet Shop, Douglas Street.

ENGLISH CRICKET
SCARBOROUGH, England, Sept. 9 (AP).—The touring New Zealand cricket team today compiled 285 runs in reply to H. D. G. Leveson-Owen's eleven, who hit up a total of 380 yesterday. Going in a second time, the English players had made 105 for five wickets when stumps were drawn.

For the visitors A. W. Hadlee made 48 and G. L. Weir obtained 50. Arthur Welland, Somerset professional, took four New Zealand wickets for 35 runs.

One Million Prescriptions—One of the best-known pharmacies in the United States is on Lexington Avenue, New York City, operated by Dr. J. Leon Lasoff, first vice-president of the American Pharmaceutical Association. Opened in 1899, it has always dealt in drugs and has somehow managed to buck the drugstore trend toward Oriental bazaars and quick service lunch counters. Window displays consist of mortars and pestles, and letters for prescriptions from all parts of the world. Behind the scenes, a crew of pharmacists compound from 150 to 175 prescriptions a day. On March 11, 1899, Dr. Lasoff filled prescription No. 1, and on November 29, 1936, he reserved for himself the right to mix No. 1,000,000.

HAWAIIAN MARATHON RUNNERS—In the olden days when Hawaii was ruled by kings of Hawaiian royalty, food articles consumed by them were the freshest and choicest obtainable. To get fresh fish of a certain kind, they maintained a squad of runners, called kukinis, who were sent to the opposite side of the island every day. From Hilo they ran as far as Kona and also to the famous fishing grounds at Kawaihe, running over the slopes of the mountains a distance of seventy-five miles in the short time of eight hours. The fish were wrapped in li leaves, surrounded by fine, silky seaweed saturated with water, and were still alive, believe it or not, when delivered to the king.

Bolton Wanderers Face Huddersfield In Feature Tussle

Surprise Team of First Division Have Hard Match On Hands. On Saturday—Rangers to Take on Celtic in Main Event on Scottish League Programme—Great Exhibition Is Expected

LONDON, Sept. 9.—Although the English Football League season is only two weeks old, one of the eighty-eight clubs has obtained maximum points. After turning in three straight victories, Arsenal lost 2-1 at Huddersfield yesterday and Notts County dropped its first point in Third Division play when held to a scoreless draw by Exeter City.

Many clubs will be below strength for Saturday's contests owing to a heavy crop of injuries suffered in the heavy opening programme played on sun-baked grounds.

Surprise team of the campaign to date, Bolton Wanderers head the First Division with seven points, one more than the Gunners, and have yet to taste defeat. The Lancastrians, who last year narrowly escaped relegation, have shown a remarkable reversal of form, the chief reason for their success being the great showing of R. W. Westwood, international inside left. Bolton plays at Huddersfield Saturday.

Leicester City, promoted from the second league at the end of last season, is host to Arsenal and a lively tussle is in prospect. Sunderland, English Cup holder, is at home to Manchester City, league champion. The Wanderers will be handicapped by the absence of R. Gurney, leader of the attack, but Manchester City has not yet struck its stride judging by the 4-1 defeat inflicted by Everton yesterday.

Brackley, with Aberdeen, Celtic and Rangers for the runner-up position. Motherwell goes to Hamilton. The Airdrie have split points in their last four home games against Motherwell, but the visitors are favorites to take the "rubber."

Morton, with five consecutive defeats and still without a point, is underdog Saturday against Falkirk at Cappielow Park. Third Lanark, tied with Falkirk and Hearts in third place, meets Queen's Park at Hampden. The Edinburgh Derby brings together Hearts and Hibernians at Tynecastle Park.

RACE MEETING TO GET UNDER WAY SATURDAY

Large Fields and Good Races Promised at Willows Track—First Post Time 1:45

They're off! This familiar cry, sweet music to the ears of punters everywhere, will resound tomorrow afternoon at the Willows track as the thoroughbred break through the gates for the first race of the season.

The season's first race, a four-year-old colts and fillies, will be the first of a series of races which will be run over the course. The track, which has been in the hands of the Willows family since 1880, is one of the best in the province. It is situated on a high, dry, and well-drained piece of land, and the track itself is of excellent quality. The races will be run over a course of one and a half miles, and the first post time will be 1:45 o'clock.

Upwards of 300 thoroughbreds are stabled at the Willows, and the quality of the racing is expected to be of the highest. The track is well equipped with all the necessary facilities for the comfort and convenience of the public. The races will be run over a course of one and a half miles, and the first post time will be 1:45 o'clock.

With plenty of "bangtails" already on the scene, officials are assured of large fields for each event. A number of special handicaps will be run during the meet, with the annual Daily Colonist handicap as one of the feature races.

Clay Puett, using his own starting gate, will be the official starter, replacing "Wampus" Fuller, who did the job last season. Jack Short, former Victoria boy, now staff announcer at C.K.O., Vancouver, will be in charge of the public address system. Western Canada's best turf announcer, Short's word picture really give the punters the progress of the race from barrier to the finish line.

Judge "Doc" McKeon, popular figure on British Columbia tracks for many years, will be the presiding judge. Starting tomorrow, the meet will continue daily, with the exception of Sundays, until Monday, September 27.

REPORTED GOOD FISHING SEASON

CAMPBELL RIVER, Sept. 9.—Tye fishing here is now drawing to a close after a good season, during which many fine catches were made. During the first week of September forty-seven Tyees were caught, each one weighing over thirty pounds. For the entire season fifty button fish have been caught, including three gold buttons, eighteen silver and twenty-nine bronze.

Although the catches were not as high as last season, it is a good record and very satisfactory to the fishermen.

C. H. Forrester, of Vancouver, is credited with catching the biggest Tye, hooking a fifty-six pounder. Several fine fish were hooked last week by visitors and are as follows: Stuart B. Chandler, Castella, California, 54 pounds; Mrs. W. H. McMiller, Victoria, 48 pounds; James L. Dunlop, Victoria, 42 pounds; George Dunlop, Victoria, 45 pounds; Albert Angell, Vancouver, 47 pounds; Dr. A. Schutt, Bremerton, 44 pounds; L. R. McVash, Bremerton, 45 pounds; W. H. McMiller, Victoria, 46 pounds; 31½, 30½, 45½, 41½ and 41 pounds; E. Older, Bremerton, 46 pounds.

The sailing schooner "Invader," formerly owned by Joseph Schenck of Hollywood, California, has been here for a few days. Included in the party is Chico Marx, of the famous Marx Brothers. They are trying their luck at Tye fishing.

Football Meeting

Complete reorganization of the Junior and juvenile football set-up will be made at a meeting to be held in The Colonist board room on Tuesday, September 14, at 7:30 o'clock. Any new clubs wishing to compete this year are asked to have delegates present. All members of last season's teams are requested to have representatives on hand.

Being Groomed for Fight

Before many more months have passed, Joe Louis, heavyweight champion of the world, will have plenty to worry about as far as his boxing career is concerned. Latest reports are that another "white hope," in the person of Jimmy Adamick, is rapidly coming to the fore. He is at present being groomed by Jack Kearns for a big fight. He has won his last thirty-seven bouts by the knockout route. In his latest encounter he hit his opponent so hard he broke his jaw. Adamick is seen here in a fighting pose.

TRACK STARS TO COMPETE

Y.M.C.A. Sending Athletes To Zone Trials at Vancouver Tomorrow

Victoria will make a strong bid for representation on Canada's British Empire Games team for next year when a quartette of her best track and field men, each a specialist in his own event, will go over to the Zone 1 trials at Hastings Park, Vancouver, on Saturday, to compete with the best amateurs of British Columbia and Alberta.

Headed by Chuck Cunningham, veteran miler of the "Flying Y" track team, the local contingent will include also Bill Dale, Fred Loeffler and Art Brockman. Cunningham is expected to make a good showing for his event, while Dale in the half-mile, Loeffler in the six-mile grind, and Brockman, promising fifteen-year-old broad jumper, may each be counted on to be well to the fore in their classes.

The local aspirants for honors will meet strong competition, however, with at least twelve of Alberta's best performers and a large number of British Columbia Mainland entries in the running.

SPRINT STARS

The sprints especially promise to be well contested, with Pat Haley, Lee and Jack Orr, Hoxie McPhee and Jack Harrison all expected to be on hand. Of these the two Orrs and McPhee have already seen Olympic competition, while Harrison, Vancouver's flying policeman, has recently come into prominence by a victory over McPhee in the century feature at Nanaimo on Labor Day.

Competition for Dale in the 880 dash may come from some of the Albertans, as well as from Bobby Redhead, Powell River. In all his meets this year the lanky high school star has scarcely been passed, and local fans are confident he will have more than an edge over his competitors on Saturday.

Joe Haley, high-jumping ace from British Columbia's Interior who jumped for Canada at the Olympic Games, is considered a sure win in his specialty. In the distance jump John MacKinnon, Ladner, is expected to place well, with the probability that Brockman may show sufficient form to outpace him in the broad jump.

"Have you any complaints to make?" asked the prison governor. "Yes," replied the prisoner, schooled in architecture. "The prison walls are not built to last."

BASKETBALL PARLEY IS CARDED TONIGHT

The annual meeting of the Victoria and District Basketball League will be held tonight at the Y.M.C.A. at 7:30 o'clock. Plans for the coming season will be discussed and officers elected. All of last year's clubs are asked to have delegates present. President Jack Taylor will be in the chair.

Recognition Out of Order

New York State Commission Will Not Recognize Thil-Apostoli Winner

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—The New York State Athletic Commission today declined to recognize the winner of the forthcoming fifteen-round match between Marcel Thil, of France, and Fred Apostoli, of San Francisco, as world's middleweight champion.

The commission recognizes Freddie Steele, of Tacoma, as world king of the 160-pounders. Mike Jacobs, promoter of the bout, protested against the commission ruling. They declared that prior to 1932, Gorilla Jones, Akron, O., negro, was recognized as New York State champion, and that on June 13, 1932, Thil defeated the American in a title match. Therefore, they declared, Thil should be recognized here.

The commission replied that Thil had forfeited his right to the title by refusing to accept several invitations to defend the title here.

MRS. JACKSON IS DEFEATED IN GOLF TOURNEY

Uplands Club Shotmaker Drops Tough Match in Canadian Tournament

By CHARLES EDWARDS Associated Press Staff Writer

NIAGARA COUNTRY CLUB, WINNIPEG, Sept. 9.—Two Winnipeg women, one from Toronto and another from Vancouver emerged tonight from a day of upsets in the Canadian women's close golf tournament.

Heather Leslie, Winnipeg's nineteen-year-old Manitoba champion, and Winnifred Evans, Vancouver, met in an eighteen-hole semi-final match tomorrow afternoon. The Canadian women's open title holder, Mrs. John Rogers, of Winnipeg, opposes pretty Willo Love, of Toronto, in the other.

The sharpshooting quartette reached the bracket of four after two rounds today marked by elimination of a strong Montreal trio and downfall of Mrs. Eric Phillips, Toronto, runner-up to Mrs. Rogers in the open.

MAJNLANDER WINS

Miss Evans accomplished defeat of Mrs. Phillips in the second round, taking a three-hole lead in the first nine as the Toronto Lamont ace went out in a shaky, ten-over-par 49, and ending the match with a par five as Miss Hankin played her third into the gully in front of the green and dubbed her fourth.

In the third round Heather ousted the gallery favorite, sixteen-year-old Margaret Esau, of Rosetown, Sask., on the nineteenth green. Miss Esau, playing in her first national tournament, upset the clever Vancouver player, Lillian Boyd, on an extra hole in the morning.

Mrs. Konan scored a surprise victory over an open semi-finalist, Mrs. H. W. Soper, of Montreal, in the morning, one up, and the third woman's match, closing rally to win, 2 and 1. Mrs. Jackson was handicapped by a bruised hand, injured in a fall last night.

Mrs. Rogers barely escaped defeat in the morning at the hands of Mrs. Douglas Laird, Winnipeg, who led, one up, at the turn and shot near-par golf on the home nine. The open champion dropped a thirty-five-foot putt on the eighteenth hole to win, one up, with a birdie four.

Mrs. Rogers had to come from behind too, to take the measure of Dorothy Holmes, Toronto, N.S., 2 and 1. In the morning, Miss Holmes ousted Alice MacDonald, of Winnipeg, 2 and 1.

CONSOLATION FLIGHT

First Round

Ruth Thompson, Winnipeg, defeated Mrs. K. C. Allen, Calgary, 5 and 3.

Mrs. C. Shuttleworth, Hamilton, Ont., defeated Mary MacDonald, Edmonton, 4 and 3.

Evelyn Mills, Ottawa, defeated Mrs. Alex McBain, Toronto, on nineteenth.

Mrs. Beverly Grant, Winnipeg, defeated Mrs. Roy Swail, Winnipeg, one up.

Mrs. Gordon Brown, Regina, defeated Mrs. R. S. Rideout, Regina, 3 and 2.

Barbara Trlica, Bridgewater, N.S., defeated Mrs. H. S. Robinson, Toronto, by default.

Kay Parrell, Vancouver, defeated Mrs. R. W. Renwick, Vancouver, one up.

Mrs. G. M. Cuppage, Victoria, defeated Mrs. Theodore Kipp, Winnipeg, one up.

SECOND FLIGHT

First Round

Mrs. L. P. Mason, Winnipeg, defeated Dr. Emma Adamson, Winnipeg, 3 and 2.

Jean Ross, Winnipeg, defeated Helen Bremner, Ottawa, 5 and 4.

Mrs. Charles Wilson, Victoria, defeated Mrs. R. R. Watta, Saskatoon, 6 and 4.

Margaret MacMillan, Saskatoon, defeated Mrs. R. W. Thorpe, Saskatoon, two up.

BREAKS FOUR SWIM MARKS

Ralph Flanagan Establishes Quartette of Records at A.A.U. Meet

CHICAGO, Sept. 9.—Broad-shouldered Ralph Flanagan, twenty-year-old Olympic veteran from Miami, Fla., crammed four record-smashing performances into one race today as he outclassed his field to win the Amateur Athletic Union's one-mile swimming championship for the third straight year.

Flanagan stole the show on the opening day of the A.A.U.'s annual title meet, successfully defending the first of three titles he won a year ago, winning by 200 yards over young John Patton, Jr., of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and erasing marks set up by Jack Medina, Seattle, freestyle powerhouse from Seattle.

Swimming alone after the first length of the fifty-five-yard course, Flanagan increased his margin with every stroke, to shatter the world and meet record of 20:37.8, established by Medina in 1934, by 15.2. En route, he lowered Medina's 1200-yard American record from 15:41 to 15:28 and trimmed the great Westerner's American 1500-metre mark from 19:20 to 19:13.

What Today Means

"VIRGO"

If September 10 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. and from 8:30 to 10:30 p.m. The danger periods are from 7:30 to 9:30 a.m. from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. and from 10:30 p.m. until midnight.

You will have no trouble this day in finding someone willing to engage in a controversy. However, if you are wise, you will steer clear of any argument. Snobishness superinduced by an excess of egotism, will be one of the ugly traits that will help mar the tranquility of the day.

A superiority complex that inspires a desire to have the upper-hand in dictating policies, must be suppressed by anyone afflicted with it. If trouble is to be avoided, this ought to prove to be a most auspicious day for promoters, investors and brokers because the horn of plenty seems abundantly filled with business for anyone for many people today, and you may be among those destined to share in its gifts. Married and engaged couples, as well as those basking in the sunshine of cupid's smiles, ought to make every effort to be agreeable this day and to abstain from nagging or fault-finding.

If a woman, and September 10 is your birthday, personality means a great deal to you, for through it you will succeed or fail. You have it in your power to develop a charmingly agreeable individuality that will attract many people to you and ought to be a great asset to a professional or business career. You must never be too busy to be polite, especially to salesmen, if you expect to succeed. Be careful that in rubbing elbows with the world at large the erratic behavior of the general public does not make you inclined to become calloused when it comes to considering the feelings of other people. Nourish sentiment, for through sentimentality your greatest happiness will be derived. As a store assistant, author, artist, saleslady, actress or broker you may be successful financially. The chances are you will marry well and happily.

The child born on September 10 usually develops remarkably both intellectually and physically after adolescence. Generally an artistic or professional career enables this youngster to achieve both fame and wealth. If a man and September 10 is your natal day, be careful! That industry does not poison your mind, wreck your hopes or interfere with ambition. As a chemist, builder, contractor, politician, actor, lawyer, doctor, engineer, writer or salesman you ought to attain a position of prominence and affluence.

CHAPTER XXX

"Polly—" His voice reproached the simplicity of her thinking. "What could have been simpler than to hide a woman's skirt among those hand grenade boxes? There's no doubt, he meant for you to touch him as he moved by you, meant for you to feel the skirt. But let's get on."

"When you opened your eyes, he was standing over you, asking questions. He isn't concerned with the fact that you were very nearly throttled. He wants to know what happened, every detail, and then, quite by accident, he finds a thread fastened in your split nail. Can't you see the patent absurdity of that, Polly? Detective work. Entirely too naive to be plausible. It might happen, yes; but it practically never does. In some seven years of experience as a detective in New York City, I never ran into one of those helpful little clues you're always reading about in fiction. And what does he do? Angus asked, suddenly turning to her again, "when he finds the thread? Does he use his precious matches to go back to the dungeon, to take another look at Marco, to make his magnifying-glass examination? No, he continues to ask questions until he has only two matches left. You mustn't look into that chamber again—not yet. Because he hasn't decided how to explain the disappearance of Marco's body. In all probability he determined that you should not go back at all; just as easy to tell you later that he went back and the body was not there."

Polly wasn't looking at him. She was staring out at the blue water, seeing nothing, hearing only Angus' voice and the heavy thudding of her heart.

"So the matches give out and you two go up to get the other flashlight. The other one, Polly. Tell me, how many men carry two flashlights in their case? But Brell has a flashlight—ready for action. Now he has you out of the way, in the car. He wants to go back, immediately, to clean up, close the gate, perhaps substitute a whole lock for the one he has sawed through. But you scream at that point and he comes hurrying back to the car."

"What had Brell be afraid of? You said he was very angry with you. Why was he angry? He might have laughed it off, as he certainly should have under the circumstances. But he hustles back to the car and grumps and takes you home. Then later he finds you on his hands again. Perhaps he had been back to the old fort in the meantime and tidied up. I don't know that, but it's possible."

"At all events, you two go back there and Brell gives a thrilling exhibition of the high-powered fiction detective at work. And having completed his performance, he gives you a detailed explanation of what happened."

Angus threw his cigarette on the sand and kicked it with the back of his heel. He turned to her then and once more his voice begged for understanding. "That's the story, Polly. Telling you hasn't been so pleasant." His hand reached down and covered her own in the sand. "Try not to hate me too much, Polly."

She pulled her hand away and sat around with the abrupt movement of one waking from a deep sleep. "Why should Jerry Brell want to murder Mr. Fordell?" It was not merely a question; it was a shouted demand.

A hurt look came into Angus' eyes. He said at last, "Until I was coming back from my fruitless Savannah trip to look over the Marco suspect, it did not occur to me that all the persons who expressed theories after Fordell's murder, Brell alone refused to accept the incontrovertible evidence of Marco's fingerprints on the ladder and the window sill. Marco touched those things, Polly, or the fingerprints would not have been there. But Brell insisted Marco had not killed Fordell. He not only knew who had killed Fordell but he knew, too, that Marco was dead. The fiction detective was telling you in advance that the testimony lied, that Marco did not kill Fordell. He knew, and he had already decided to point the finger in another direction—toward a woman."

"But why, why, why, . . . ?" Polly hardly recognized her own strained voice. "Why should he want to kill Mr. Fordell, I ask you?"

"I don't know, Polly, but I can suggest a motive, one which may be found to be the correct one . . . Patriotism. He's a good officer and a good patriot, made from imagining himself a detective . . . Now, listen. Brell was one of the group of officers who sat in a conference with Fordell. We don't know what that conference was about, but it is fairly definitely established that Fordell had an invention in which the army was interested. So much interested that a group of officers was sent to discuss its purchase. Fordell was no patriot. He was in it for profit. Ask the man who did business with him. Whether Smithway or an incendiary gas bomb, Fordell had something of tremendous importance in the military of his country. Now suppose he tried to hold the Government up, demanded more than the Government felt justified in paying, and in the course of that conference at his home announced that unless his own Government purchased his invention, he would sell it to a foreign Government—to the highest bidder . . . Brell, I say is a patriot. He doesn't intend to stand by and see Fordell sell out his own country. So . . . a slight lift of his shoulders completed his meaning. 'Valuable papers are stolen. Fordell is murdered. His bodyguard is murdered. find the murderer.'"

Polly got to her feet and moved toward the car. She heard Angus hurrying behind her, but she did not turn. She was suddenly, desperately ill, so ill that everything swirled in a purple haze before her eyes. She reached the car, said through a sudden storm of tears: "Take me home, Angus. Hurry . . . please!"

Little Stories for Bedtime

Chatterer Has a Fright
—By THORNTON W. BURGESS

Chatterer the Red Squirrel, curled up in the darkest corner of Farmer Brown's corncrib, was having such a beautiful dream. He was king of the Green Forest and the Green Meadows, and all the other little people who live there brought him presents of beautiful yellow corn. He had great storehouses all filled with corn, and he would never again have to look for anything to eat. Even Biskrow the Weasel brought him presents of corn, and everybody was very polite and bowed before him because he was king. Yes, indeed, it was a beautiful dream.

Presently he dreamed that he heard a whistle, a merry whistle. It was the whistle of Farmer Brown's boy, and he could see him coming down the Lone Little Path through the Green Forest with a great bag of corn on his shoulder as a present for the king. The whistle sounded nearer and nearer and nearer. Suddenly Chatterer's eyes flew open. At first he thought he was still dreaming, for he had forgotten where he was. All around him was the beautiful yellow corn, and he still heard the whistle, only now it sounded very loud indeed. He shut his eyes and then opened

"Yes, sir, it certainly is pretty fine corn," said Farmer Brown's boy.

Then again to see if the corn would disappear. It didn't. It was real. It was all about him. In fact, he was lying on some. And the whistle was real, too. In a flash Chatterer remembered where he was, and he knew that Farmer Brown's boy must be just outside. He started to scramble to his feet to peek out, but just then the door of the corncrib was thrown open with a bang that made Chatterer jump inside so that it seemed as if his heart came right up into his mouth. A flood of sunshine poured in and made the corn seem more yellow than ever. Then in stepped Farmer Brown's boy still whistling. Chatterer thought that, of course, he had come for him. He was sure of it, and he was just going to make a rush for that knothole through which he had crept in when something inside warned him to keep perfectly still. So Chatterer kept perfectly still, though it seemed to him that it was one of the hardest things he had ever done in all his life. He felt as if he simply must run. Then he remembered how Uncle Billy Possum had fooled Farmer Brown's boy by keeping perfectly still even after he had been found; so still that Farmer Brown's boy had thought him dead. "I couldn't keep still like that," thought Chatterer, "but perhaps Farmer Brown's boy doesn't know I am here after all. I'll keep still until he does find me." So he tried to hold his breath and all the time his heart went thump, thump, thump with fright, and it seemed to him that Farmer Brown's boy certainly must hear it.

But he didn't. He kept right on whistling, and as he whistled he laid a basket with ears of corn. When the basket was full he stepped outside and shut the door with another bang that made poor Chatterer jump again. "Pretty fine corn," Yes, sir, it certainly is pretty fine corn," said Farmer Brown's boy to Farmer Brown, who came along just then. "And the rats and the mice can't get at it. It's certainly safe here," he added. "I've seen that thieving Jay stealing a few grains through the crack, but I guess he is welcome to all he can get that way. No one else can get any, that's sure."

Chatterer grinned. Then he remembered a little verse his mother had taught him when he was a very little fellow and had been boasting what he knew.

Don't be too sure of anything. For, smart though you may be, You're sure to find somebody else Can beat you up the tree.

Which means, of course, that no matter how smart you may think yourself, someone else is just as smart or a little bit smarter. Here was Farmer Brown's boy boasting that no one could steal that corn, and here was Chatterer helping himself to all he wanted. Was it any wonder that Chatterer grinned?
